

Summer Spill Proposal Decision Process Timeline

- The federal proposal for a specific summer spill operation will be released in late March
- Federal agencies will conduct informal briefings for state and tribal executives, and regional stakeholders
- There will be a short written comment period followed by a meeting of state, tribal and federal executives April 16 for further discussion
- The federal executives will make a decision shortly after the April 16 meeting